QUALIFICATIONS OF UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGES

United States bankruptcy judges exercise highly important judicial powers and responsibilities as officers of the United States district courts. It is therefore imperative that only highly qualified individuals be selected as bankruptcy judges.

1. Minimum Qualifications.

To be qualified for appointment as United States bankruptcy judges, nominees must meet the following standards:

(a) They must be members in good standing of the bar of the highest court of at least one state, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and members in good standing of every other bar of which they are members.

(b) They must (1) possess, and have a reputation for, integrity and good character; (2) possess, and have demonstrated, a commitment to equal justice under the law; (3) possess, and have demonstrated, outstanding legal ability and competence; (4) indicate by their demeanor, character, and personality that they would exhibit judicial temperament if appointed or reappointed; and (5) be of sound physical and mental health sufficient to perform the essential duties of the office.

(c) They must not be related by blood or marriage to a judge of the appointing court of appeals or judicial council of that circuit, or to a judge of the district court to be served, within the degrees specified in 28 U.S.C. § 458, at the time of the initial appointment.

2. Additional Qualifications.

(a) Unless the council determines that special conditions exist, they must have been engaged in the active practice of law for a period of at least five years. The judicial council may consider as substitute experience for the active practice of law the following, including any combination thereof:

(1) Judge of a state court of record or other state judicial officer.

(2) United States magistrate judge, referee in bankruptcy, bankruptcy judge, or other federal judicial officer.

(3) Attorney for federal or state agencies.

(4) Law clerk to any judge or judicial officer (limited to two years).

(5) Other legal experience which is suitable as a substitute in the opinion of the majority of the judicial council.

(b) A judicial council may establish additional qualification standards appropriate for a particular position, taking into account the specific responsibilities anticipated for that position.
